

Updated 27th March 2021
Kingston Park CAFC Covid 19 Risk Assessment
What is the danger?	Who might be harmed?	Controls Required	Additional Controls	Action by Whom?	Action by When?
Club and Facility Providers	All players / coaches, parents and guardians	A designated Covid 19 officer and team to implement Covid 19 risk assessment		Covid-19 officer	before return of football parents / carers	everyone	written consent to both club and coaches you are happy with and will abide with the clubs Covid-19 planning arrangements		Covid-19 officer and club	before return
Spread of Covid-19 and excepting the risk	Everyone	All players, officials, volunteers and spectators must undergo a self-assessment for any COVID-19 symptoms	this self-assessment should be done before every training session and match and recorded in regular risk assessments	Covid-19 team	before return of football
Players / coaches attending sessions may transfer COVID to other members of household	Players / Coaches Other members of Household	Players / coaches from households containing people who are shielding, self isolating or suffering from suspected COVID should not attend training at all.	Parents to be informed in writing	Email newsletter from club Texts from team managers	Prior to first training session
Congestion when travelling in car to / from training	Players / Parents	Parents to be informed that lifts should not be offered to anyone not from same household Parents should follow Governments guidance on safer travel	Parents to be informed in writing	Email newsletter from club Texts from team managers	Prior to first training session
Congestion at entrance to football area	All	Stagger arrival and departure times	Use one way system using one gate to enter and another to exit. Players and parents to await outside entrance until called to enter/exit	Club Official to marshal entrance/ exits Club Official to marshal entrance/ exits	From 15 mins prior to start and exit times.
Contagion from contact with shared equipment	Players / Coaches	Players to be issued with single use football equipment at start of session.	Equipment to be disinfected at start and end of every session. Equipment not to be touched or shared by players Players not to touch balls. Hands and equipment to be sanitised asap if players in contact with equipment. Training bibs not to be used.	Team managers to control distribution and use of equipment Club to supply team managers with disinfectant wipes.	Before, during and after each session
Contagion between different sets of football equipment	Players / Coaches	Team managers to use own existing supply of training equipment.	Only one team manager to be inside any storage cabin at any one time	Team Managers	All sessions on Grass pitches
Injury / illness during the session	Players / Coaches	No first aid to be provided by coaches. Minor first aid to be administered by parents using club equipment. Parents to remove players if more intensive treatment is needed Emergency services to be called for urgent first aid.	Parents must attend and keep their child in sight at all times. Players should bring their own hand sanitiser and named labelled water bottle. Emergency contact and medical details to be updated via player registration process	Email newsletter from club Text from team managers Parents to register players prior to first session Secretary to supply team managers with updated contact and medical details	Monthly 24 hours in advance of first session
Contagion between parents, spectators and substitutes	Parents, Spectators Substitutes	Parents to be informed they must adhere to social distancing while spectating. All to wear masks at all times.	Wide space allocated between different trianing groups	To be marshalled by a volunteer parent supervised by team manager. All to be managed by COVID Officer	Throughout sessions
NHS Track and Trace not operating Successfully	All attending all sessions On grass pitches	NHS Scan Barcode to be made Available at entrance to sports fields Kenton Sport to provide Scan Barcode At entrance to 3G pitches	Club to assume that all players are present at all training sessions and at all matches All emergency contact details for all Players and parents to be collected During player registration	All to scan using NHS app on entrance to sports fields and on entrance to 3G pitches	On entrance During player registration